

GEORGE TOMLINSON NEWS

Dear Parents & Carers,

This week has flown by! Christmas seems such a long time ago!

I was really pleased to take Ellie Ross, one of our parent governors, around the school on Thursday to look at the English and Mathematics provision across the school. We were both so impressed with all the Read Write Inc phonics groups that we saw at the start of the day. We went to every group and saw some excellent learning going on. The behaviour in fantastic and it was evident that the children were making really good progress. We also looked at the Inspire Maths resources and the use of these new books in lessons. Finally, we went to Year 4 who were doing Destination Reader.

I have been working with a group of Year 6s this week at lunchtime and we have started a lunchtime project group. We have been learning about the first landing on the Moon in 1969. It is important that children have as much general knowledge as possible so that they can fully understand any text that they read. It is so important that you read with your children so that they know as many different stories as possible.

The school is going from strength to strength and with your support it can achieve the excellence we are striving for!

Have a wonderful weekend.

Class Corner – 5SK

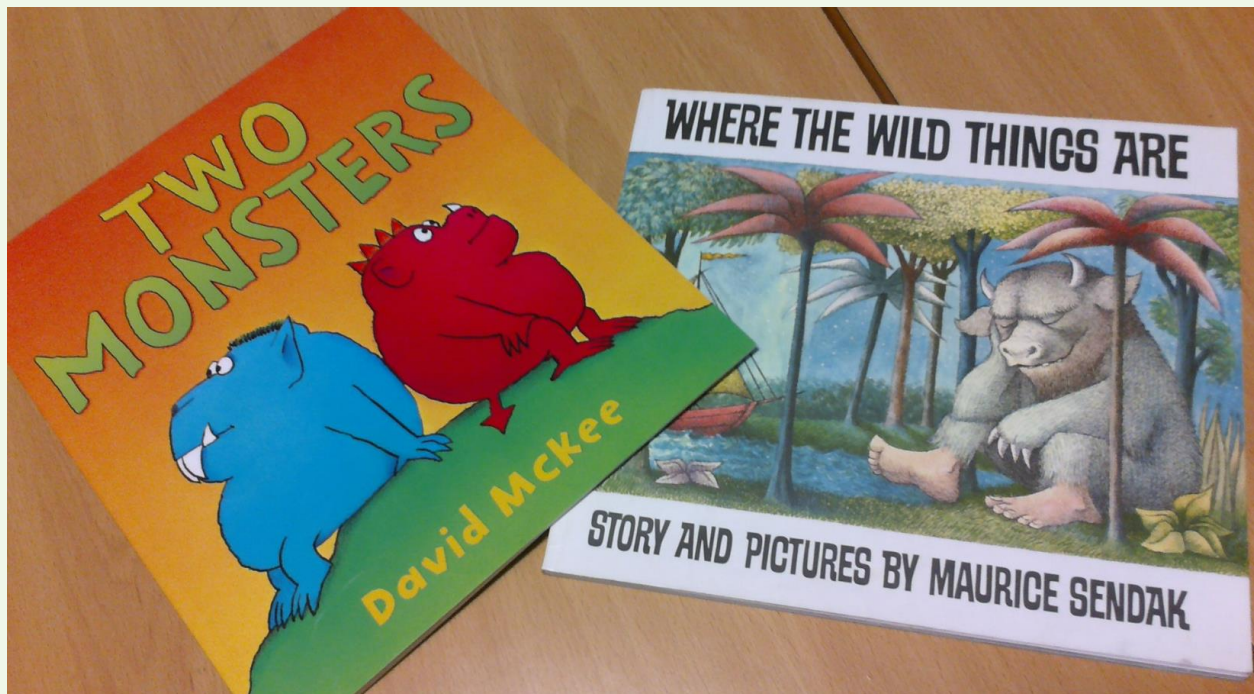

This has been a phenomenal week in the 5SK. I have seen a huge improvement in learning behaviour and as a result, the progress made by each individual learner in my room. I would attribute this to our whole school approach on P4C.

P4C, stands for Philosophy for Children. It is a great opportunity for children to share their views, learn how to listen to each other and develop communication skills which can be taken to the playground to help our children learn to manage their emotions and solve their own playground problems.

Our class have been using the stories "Where the Wild Things Are" by Maurice Sendak and "Two Monsters" by David McKee as starting points for discussion. Learners in my room were able to create questions that they would like to discuss and have very maturely, taken a democratic vote to choose a question to discuss as a whole class. Some of the questions raised included, "Why did the monsters not peek through the hole to see each other?" and, "Why are the monsters arguing over the same point said in different words?"

Thank you Edidi for raising that second question, and this was the question that the class voted to discuss. You can imagine, we had an amazing child led discussion around this question. There were some very sophisticated points made and the boys and girls in my class were able to link it to their playground behaviour and learning behaviour in the class. I even had a few children making links to the wider world and discussing how wars ruin people's lives and have huge impact on the world that we live in.

Finally, thank you to all the amazing parents for providing the support our children need to develop. I have had such an amazing week working with this class and cannot wait for our next P4C!

E-Safety & Monitoring at home

Dear parents and carers,

I am writing to you to express my concern about our pupils' use of social media applications such as WhatsApp, Facebook and Instagram, usually on their mobile phones. As an example, it has been brought to my attention that some children are experiencing bullying and receiving abusive messages on WhatsApp. As a school we cannot police how children use their phones or computers at home.

I want to request that you speak to your children about the seriousness of sending unpleasant messages online and the effect that it can have on others. I'd also urge you to be aware of what is on your child's phone and make sure that they tell you if they receive anything that makes them feel upset.

At our school, we teach children about the importance of being safe online so that they will have the tools to know what is and isn't acceptable. The way that children use social media is changing quickly and we need to work together with parents to protect them.

As a school we take bullying incredibly seriously and want all children to feel safe and happy. My hope is that we can work together on this to make sure that social media is only used in a positive way and brings benefits to our pupils.

Please see below link for a recent Facebook page for Parents providing information on cyber bullying.

We would to thank you in advance for your support with this matter.

Kind regards,

Verity Carter
