

Primary School Music Instructor/Co-ordinator required

3 Days per week / Term Time Only

Grade 4 Spine 18-21 FT £19,917 – 21,984 / Pro Rate Salary £10,160 - £11,215

George Tomlinson Primary School has available an excellent opportunity for a talented and enthusiastic singing teacher.

They should be dynamic and engaging in their teaching style and committed to work towards end of term performances.

The position would be to teach curriculum based music lessons across the primary age range and to encourage creative work within the classroom with an emphasis on singing. In addition to delivering lessons you will also be responsible for leading singing assemblies and helping with the school choir.

Applicants should have strong classroom management skills and be enthusiastic and to able to motivate and inspire young children to learn new skills.

Excellent rates of pay.

Requirements:

- 2 years UK primary curriculum music teaching experience
- Must be a pianist and singer
- A aspirational and inspirational committed teacher
- Ability to makes lessons fun
- Able to improve children's confidence with music
- Able to manage arranging of instrumental lessons liaising with the local Music Service, school finance department and parents as required
- Commitment to work towards class/year/whole school performances throughout the year
- Prepared to become part of the school
- To be able to provide 2 references