Dear Parents and Carers,
On Monday we had our Reception Sports Day! The children were incredible even in the heat, and all tried really hard to win their races and do their best. It was fantastic to see so many parents, we hope you enjoyed it and thank you to all those who took part in the races! This year the 'parents v teacher's tug of war competition', was a new event. You can watch some of the action on our very own Instagram, just type in 'George Tomlinson' to the search facility.

You can also watch all the sports day action on GTTV. This is our very own sports channel on You Tube going live on Friday morning by following this link below

On Tuesday we welcomed some of our new Reception parents and children to the school. Thank you to everyone who took the time to bring their children. It was lovely to meet you all. We will be running our second welcome morning next week, so if you couldn't attend on Tuesday, please come next Tuesday.

On Wednesday we had another visitor to Reception. Dr. Garnett came to talk to the children about his job as a philosopher. The children and teachers were 'absolutely mesmerized from beginning to end. He talked about how philosophers ask lots of hard questions and think carefully about what the answers could be.

The children then did a bit of philosophy themselves. Dr. Garnett posed some big questions: 'How do we know that right now, we are not dreaming?' The children thought long and hard about this and one replied, 'You could pinch yourself'. He got the children to think again and asked, 'How do you know that someone else isn't controlling your dream and making you pinch yourself!' He certainly gave us lots to think about!

This Saturday is the Summer fair, don't miss out on all the fun and a fantastic weekend!
